A Republican victory in 1889 will be national peace.

A party that is born of Democracy has but few days and is full of trouble.

It seems that Mr. Jenkins will not be led by the nose by the Madison Democrat.

"The times are very hard"—for Democratic politicians. Resumption made them worse.

The Wisconsin Republicans will resume to defeat the Democratic party one week from next Tuesday.

"General" Parkinson, the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, will be a worse defeated man than Mr. Jenkins.

All the Democratic speakers hope to do is to keep down the Republican majority in this State. Their efforts will be a failure.

Only the men who have an effluence on the political skin, scratch, and therefore the Ohio Democrats did a great deal of scratching.

It is a good thing the country had a Thomas Jefferson, otherwise the Wisconsin Democratic speakers would not know what to talk about.

It puzzles Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Vilas to know why they must make political speeches. It puzzles their audiences equally as much as it does the speakers.

No Democratic papers and no Democratic speakers, not even Mr. Jenkins himself, has attempted to prove why a Democratic Governor should be elected.

The value of the various exports from the Consular Districts of Hamilton, Ontario, to the United States, for the fiscal year ending September 30, reached, $1,731,623, a greater aggregate than for many years.

Certain Democrats are in search of a candidate for 1890. They never think of trying to get a policy which is definite and solid. Honest principles and a settled policy would confound the Democratic party.

C. M. Bright, who has been the combative editor of the Waupaca Republican for several years, has become one of the editors of the Oshkosh Times, Democratic. Politically, Bright is going home. But he is of no use to any political party.

An excellent history of the University of Wisconsin has been published by Mr. C.
W. Butterfield, of Madison. It gives the history of the University from its organization in 1818 to 1879, with biographical sketches of its Chancellors, Presidents and Professors. In addition to these, there are fine steel portraits of J. H. Lathrop LL.D., Paul A. Chabourne, D.D., LL.D., J. W.
Sterling, LL.D., and Professor J. B. Parkinson. The history is said to be uncommonly accurate; in fact, it could not be otherwise in the hands of so competent a person as Mr. Butterfield, who, as a historian, has no superior in the State. The book will be very useful, aside from being interesting, to all who desire to know the rise and progress of the University of Wisconsin. The letter press work is fine, and the binding is substantial and attractive.

THE DEFEAT OF A DEMAGOGUE.

It has been said that anything is fair in war, and there are those who pretend to say that any argument is fair in a political campaign. The Ohio campaign was conducted by Ewing and Thurman on the principle that misrepresentations however extravagant and ridiculous, were justified by the peculiar condition and the pressing needs of the Democratic party.

They did not even profess to come within "shooting distance" of the truth, and from June to October, the campaigning on their part was characterized by falsehoods, and every means known to the sharpest, and wildest Democrat in the State, was used to carry the ticket through.

Business has probably received a greater "boom" in Ohio than in any other State, hardly excepting Pennsylvania. The mills and shops are running night and day.
The mines are being worked with a full force of hands, and in many cases men cannot be hired at advanced wages. In the face of these facts, Ewing would go to large city where business was better than it had been for years, and talk about hard times, the difficulty of resumption, the beggarly condition of the country, the depressed state of trade, and Special to the Gazette.

MADISON, Oct. 23.—Your representative, in an interview with Hon. H. H. Giles, Secretary of the Board of Charities and Reform, this morning, learns that the story of horrible atrocities committed at the House of Correction in Milwaukee, as published in this morning's Sentinel, is without doubt true. The story of the prisoner is verified by other prisoners and also by an officer of the institution. Officers are basely engaged in procuring testimony and an investigation will be held at once into the truth or falsity of the charges.

If true, the officers of that institution should be incarcerated in their black hole and maintain life on the offal they have fed the prisoners.

Unfortunately there is no law to reach nor punishment provided, for such fiends.

STARTLING STORY.

Horrible Treatment of Prisoners in the Milwaukee House of Correction—Statement of a Person Confined There for Two Years—Revolting Details.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 21.—The "Sentinel" of this morning contains an account of horrible atrocities in the Milwaukee House of Correction. This institution is used at the discretion of the court as a State prison.
An intelligent convict, just released, whose character for veracity is vouched for by prominent persons who know him intimately, states that he has been an inmate for two years, and in all that time has not been allowed to write to his friends or counsel, and his family supposed him dead. He says the flour furnished convicts, for which the county pays $6 a barrel, is damaged cow-feed, and cannot be baked, and the meat is putrid. During his confinement embryo calves, dogs, and glandered horses were furnished as meat, and he brings the bones, which are in possession of the editor of the "Sentinel." Details of the food furnished are horrible beyond expression. Of the brutalities of the keepers, he says the prisoners were beaten and put in a black hole which is a filthy dog-kennel, five feet, four inches by five feet. A man cannot lie at length in it. There is no ventilation, and the floor covered with ordure and urine. Men are placed there for twenty days, and two died there to his knowledge.
There is a factory connected with the institution, and it is charged that the police are in collusion with the Superintendent to kidnap men to work on the chairs. The whole story is the most startling and revolting ever published in this country. It is claimed the charges can all be verified.

FOUND DEAD.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 23.—Shortly after noon to-day the body of a young woman, evidently of German parentage, was found on the lake shore, near the northern limits of the city. It was poorly clad, the clothing consisting of a chemise, petticoat, black cotton velvet sacque, trimmed with beads, and a white knit scarf. The feet were shoeless, but had on woolen stockings. After lying in the Morgue a few hours, the remains were identified as those of Margaret Hanich, aged 20 years. She came to the United States four months ago, two months of which time were spent at Chilton, Wis., and two months here in the family of Stephen Thiel on the West Side.
The girl's forehead and one side of the face and nose are bruised and black with blood that has clotted under the skin. Yet suspicious of foul play are not entertained.
She left home yesterday afternoon for a walk to get rid of a spell of home-sickness.
Her parents and brothers reside at Upperdorf, near Neu-Schlesien, Germany.

MURDER.

Unnatural Crime of a Young Man Near Berea, Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The details of a murder committed near Berea, Ohio, last Saturday night, show it to have been a cold-blooded affair. Gottlieb Noller, a farmer, was awakened in the night by hearing footsteps in the house. Before he could arise from his bed he was shot dead. His wife awakened by the firing, went to his aid in attempting to get up, and left for dead.

An idiot who tried to escape was shot in the face by the murderer, and left for dead.
The latter, coming to consciousness, made his way to the neighbors, and gave the alarm. Suspicion pointed to Louis Noller, a son aged 23 as the murderer. Detectives were put on his track, and he was arrested in the Union Depot, in this city, this afternoon, as he was boarding a train for Chicago. On the way to jail the prisoner confessed he shot his father, mother and brother, though he claims not to remember very distinctly about it. He says he had been drinking, and commenced firing at them without knowing what he was doing. The prisoner and his father have not been on good terms for several years, owing to trouble about property. The son was employed as fireman on the Lake Shore Road, and has heretofore borne a good reputation. It is not thought Mrs.
Noller can live.

CHICAGO POLITICS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The unwise nominations made to-day by the Democratic county convention have added immensely to the prospect of a Republican victory November 4. The convention itself was one of the most disgraceful of all the howling mobs which have ever been dignified by the name of Democratic convention in this city. The head of the ticket, Dr.
Guerrin, candidate for county treasurer, is a good enough man, but with no following or personal magnetism. Moses, candidate for superior court judge, is respectable, but being a Jew will not receive any support from the large Irish population, which has hitherto gone with the Democracy. Of the county commissioners nominated, one, Clinton Briggs, is respectable and an excellent nomination, and all the others are about as bad as can be. The better class of Democrats will support only one or two names on the ticket at best, while the Republicans, having a set of nominees for whom they can vote with a clear conscience, will work for and vote for their ticket with an unanimity that promises undoubted success. The necessity of a Republican victory in Cook county this fall is generally felt.

LET DOWN.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 23.—The Grand Jury of the United States Court is now in session here, and this morning considered the case of Hon. E. D. Coe, editor of the Waterbury Register, charged with the issuing of a bank check without the stamp affixed as required by law. The Grand Jury took into consideration that a country editor seldom or never enjoys the luxury of drawing a bank check, and is, therefore, very generally ignorant of the details of an operation of that character, and promptly dismissed the case that has been sought to be obtained against Mr. Coe. The violation was so evidently unintentional that the Grand Jury was unanimous in its dismissal.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

CAMP ON WHITE RIVER, THREE MILES NORTH OF AGENCY, Oct. 21, via Railways, Oct. 23.—Lieutenant William Bevier, Ordnance Officer, while out hunting, was killed and mutilated by Indians some eighteen miles south of here. All available cavalry started on the trail this morning. A soldier of the hunting party is also missing.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

MANITOWOC, Oct. 23.—While returning home from this city last evening, Fred.
Swenson, supervisor of the town of Eaton, and his brother, were attacked by four men and robbed, one of $100 and the other of $25. They did not recognize their assailants, but they are supposed to be four escaped convicts of the Green Bay jail.

TILDEN'S INCOME.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The suit of the government to recover from Samuel J.
Tilden his unpaid income taxes, goes over until next Monday, at the request of counsel for defendant, he not being ready to argue the demurrer to the bill of discovery filed by the government.

WHAT SHE HAS COME TO.

A Famous Heiress Now Begs Charity of the Public—Mrs. Lolly Louise Hunter, Who Equipped a Rebel Regiment, Lost Her Estate and Married a Preacher, Finds Poverty in Her Old Age.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The alternate sunshine and shade which are incident to some human lives have never been so strikingly illustrated as they are in the case of Mrs. Lolly Louise Hunter, who has been a Southern belle and heiress, the fiancée of a rebel General; the wife of a noted politician; the relative of a United States Senator; the sister-in-law of the Governor of a State; one of the society women of that wonderful and dazzling retinue that made Washington City so famous; and is

NOW A MENICENT, asking the charity of the people of this city to give her food and shelter. She is now past the half century mark, but her demeanor marks her as having been a woman of remarkable force of character; and outward of the storm marks which misfortunes have made upon her face, there are the unmistakable traces of high breeding and intelligence, and enough left to make one sure that some time in life her beauty was of no mean order.

She came to St. Louis on the 29th day of last August, and presented herself to Captain Lee, who was then acting Chief of Police. She asked to be screened from publicity, and said all she desired was a place to lay her head and a few friends to whom she might go without intrusion and obtain the necessities of life. Capt.
Lee took her case in hand, and procured a room for her on Washington avenue. He presented her case to the attention of some of the wealthy people of St. Louis, who never permitted her to suffer. A few days ago she conceived the idea that her condition would become public, and asked Capt.
Lee to obtain a pass for her to Hot Springs, where she has some friends who, it is said, would have contributed to her wants before this had they known the dire distress upon which she has been hanging.

OWNED A THOUSAND ACRES.

Before the war she was the owner of a 1,000 acres of land in Virginia. She was the daughter of a wealthy planter, and was married to a nobleman. She had the traditions of nobility attached to her family name; she had the

finish which true culture and nobility always evince; she was a woman who had travelled and read, and her mind was a store house of all that makes true womanhood admirable. It was at this time that she was wooed by a dashing young Virginian. She gave him the promise to wed; their love was of a twofold nature, partaking of the nature of that which makes the sweetest music in the heart and helping "the world go round," and that of business. Into his hands she entrusted the estate, and was solicitous for him to relieve her of her care.
He did it with a delicacy that excited no unfavorable comment. The war darkened the land. There was a feeling among Southern women those days which made heroes of their lovers, and for a man to hesitate in the matter of duty to his land was to annul every claim upon the heart he had made. The young Virginian was not a loiterer. He espoused the cause of the South, and at once commenced the organization of a regiment. This regiment was equipped and sent to John Early by the wealth of this woman. She gave it everything, and the man who marched at the head of the column had her heart.
It passed out from before a throng of beauty cheered by song and christened by tears, and away it went. In the course of a few months its ranks were decimated, and the war was not half over when the organizer was about the only survivor. He became a General and was transferred to the Gulf department. The war was over, but the man was changed. His heart had gone down with the flag he loved, and by degrees the soldier and gentleman developed into the charlatan.

By some means which are not given to the chronicler of this "life" he obtained the consent of the woman he loved to dispose of her estate. The money which was the result passed into his hands, and wild speculations and ill-buster schemes upon his part, coupled with debauchery, swept it away before the rightful owner could realize the ruin before her. They never met again. Whether this was

ROMANCE OF HER LIFE.

from which she gathered thorns, is not known. But she lived it through, and very soon after married the Hon. Philip Hunter, who was a member of Congress from a Maryland district, it is said, and who died very soon after from the bursting of a blood vessel. He was a relative of the Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, Secretary of State in the Richmond Cabinet. Her husband's estate was not sufficient to meet the demands made by her social position, and she very quickly found herself facing want in the very shadow of what had so recently been a life of fashion and splendor. Not content to become dependent upon her husband's people, she left that aid and went to New Orleans. In the summer of 1873 her daughters were afflicted with the terrible scourge of the South and died within nine days of each other. She had scarcely withdrawn from their graves when two of her grandchildren died from the same affliction.
Poverty pressed close upon her in her afflictions and she came to St. Louis. There had lived in this city a gentleman named Martin Alexander, whom her mother had adopted when he was a little boy. She came here expecting to find him and place her unfortunate condition before him. Her first day's search for him, brought her the intelligence that he too had passed away from this life, and she found herself

ALONE AND PENLESS.

in the face of a city of a half-million people. It was the terror of this thing that caused her to seek the advice of Captain Lee, who was then acting Chief of Police.
She is the niece of William Rufus King, who was a United States Senator from Maryland, and a sister-in-law of Gov.
Early, of North Carolina. She left Friday evening to join her friends at Hot Springs.
She says she has had misfortunes enough to drive most women to suicide; and being possessed of remarkable strength of mind she has never given up, and is waiting for the day to come when the last trouble will come to her life.

to be filled in America before next spring. At Springfield, last Friday night, the principal hotel was a scene of the most riotous and lawless gambling in the basement around the bar, for there were the money lenders. And yet, on scenes like that, Mr. Ewing looked like a quack doctor with a dyspeptic pill, and waited. "Be made whole!" There were two classes which he never budged, the Germans and the merchants. Probably he ascribed his defeat to the "use of money" for it was in general use. His friends asked the Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati not to close up on election day. They shut the Exchange by vote, and went to the polls to beat him, and carried the county by 3,000 majority.

"THE CHILD STEALER."

From the Lyric to the Real Stage—Truth Stranger than Fiction.

From the Ft. Wayne Gazette.

The play of "The Child Stealer" has been on the boards at the Lyric since this week, and one of the principal characters, the stolen child, is sustained by Mrs. Charles Davenport, whose stage name is Ada. She has been the leading lady at the Lyric since this season opened. Prior to that time she was traveling with a dramatic troupe. Her husband, Mr. Charles Davenport, now in the city, is a leaper and gymnast, and was with Forepaugh's show for four seasons. On June 25th of this year, while showing at Hastings, Michigan, in turning a double somersault over five elephants, he had the misfortune to break his leg in two places, which compelled him to stop in Hastings three weeks, when he went to Cincinnati. His wife knew nothing of the accident, and being about to become a mother, left the troupe she was with and went to Chicago, where she was met by a man, who, she thought, was her husband. He was a stranger, and she was very much alarmed. He told her that he was a doctor, and that he had been sent to Chicago by a man who was a friend of his. He told her that he had been sent to Chicago by a man who was a friend of his. He told her that he had been sent to Chicago by a man who was a friend of his.

It seems that this girl was intimate with a woman who was anxious to adopt a child and induced the girl to steal Mrs. Davenport's little girl by promising her $50. The girl consented, and on the night of the 12th of July, the little one was taken from the cot, while the mother slept and given to the woman.

When the midwife called in the morning, the girl told that the child had died early in the evening previous, and had been given to the Sisters of Charity to bury, as it was hot weather and decomposition had set in. The midwife told this story to Mrs. Davenport, who was then confined to her bed. She believed it as such children appeared weakly.

On the 18th of July she, with her infant boy, joined Mr. Davenport in Cincinnati. On the 31st of August the boy died and was buried in Spring Grove Cemetery. Mrs. Davenport then secured an engagement in this city where she has since remained.

Imagine her feelings yesterday when the postman handed her a letter from the lady of the house she stopped at in New York, announcing the existence of the little girl. The mother swooned and was barely able to appear in the play at the theater last evening. The letter was shown to the Gazette reporter. It is said that the husband of the woman, who had induced the girl to steal the child, would not permit her to keep it, and the infant was returned to the girl. Since then the girl has had a series of mishaps, and last Monday had her hand and arm terribly mangled by machinery in a cotton mill in Philadelphia, where she had sought employment.

Believing that she was about to die she sent for the landlady, and acquainted her with the facts on condition that, if she recovered, she should not be punished. This was assured her, when she told the foregoing facts, and stated further that the child was now with a poor family at 116 Division street in Philadelphia.

To-morrow night Mr. and Mrs. Davenport will go to Philadelphia and claim their daughter. Mrs. Davenport's eyes were dimmed with tears of joy as she related the facts to the reporter, and exhibited the letter she had received in the morning. It is at the special request of the parents that the names of the Eastern parties (now in possession of the Gazette) are suppressed, as Mrs. Davenport says she can forgive the girl for the great wrong on account of her care of the infant since the time it was stolen.

The facts as related above are true beyond doubt, and prove conclusively that "truth is oftentimes stranger than fiction."

SPLENDIDS!

Sold from the little store, 56 North Main Street, alone, and every one giving perfect satisfaction.

It is an easy matter for dealers to reason out in print, "Well, one set of these got a stove to beat the Splendid!" But when you ask them to show up the points of superiority, about all the satisfaction you get is when we're more frugal and nickle plates, and foot rails, &c., but when you get down to business, the following points possessed by the Splendid, and found in no other stove to date, is what troubles all the boys to get around:

1st. By the Ventilated Base we present one-third more heating surface.

2d. By the Latch fastenings for all doors, in place of Turn Buckles, you are safe from doors springing open, thereby emitting gases into rooms.

3d. By the Blowing and Vibrating Grate we enable you to have a fresh fire at any time free from dust and waste of coal.

4th. The sectional Fire Pot will last longer and can be replaced at one-third the expense of any other.

5th. The Revolving Top swings within circle of stove, never falls off or gets loose.

In regard to finish and fittings of castings and beauty of design, are way ahead of all competition.

In regard to the Splendid Oven or Parlor Cook, we are authorized to make a public test at any time, and guarantee to get up steam quicker and hold it longer on same amount of coal.

CRESCENT CITY UNLAUNDERED SHIRTS

BRIEFLETS.

—Uncle the visitors.
—There is little demand for iced drinks.
—O. K. Chapman has been engaged as janitor for All Souls Church.
—The Bower City Rifles received to-day the $300 from the State, which is due every year after passing the annual inspection.
—W. B. Noyes has returned from Madison, and has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to be at his office a portion of each day.
—Thomas Lynch has reopened his meat-market at the old stand on West Milwaukee street. If you want a rich juicy steak or roast, you'll be sure to find it there.
—The jail is having more paint again some of the prisoners being employed for the purpose. It is evident that those in charge mean to keep the old building looking as neat and as youthful as possible.
—There was a jovial gathering at Rev. Mr. Sewell's house last evening at the sociable given by the First Methodist church society. Besides the chatting there was coffee and sandwiches. All enjoyed the evening as far as heard from.
—Sergeant Fred S. Wheaton, of company C, First Illinois Guards, who has been spending a few days in the city, left to-day in company with his wife for Fort Howard from whence they will return soon to their Chicago home.
—F. W. Guernsey, who formerly lived here, and who is still kindly remembered by scores of friends, was last week re-elected to the two offices of County Superintendent of Schools, and County Surveyor, of Plymouth county, Iowa. He makes his home at Lemars in that county.
—There was, in round figures 5,000 acres of tobacco grown within an area of 20 miles from Janesville. The crop was $800,000, a very small crop but one of the best ever known in Wisconsin. The hops are all sold excepting about 900 bales at 25 and 31 cents per pound.
—Mr. J. Jeffrey has decided to begin his great six-day walk against time in Lippins hall November 3. He will attempt to walk 500 miles, and will try to beat Rowell's record time. He is in training now, and those who know him best are expecting to see a fine showing of strength and speed.
—The Court Street Choir met for rehearsal last evening at the residence of Mr. S. D. Conant, in the first ward. They were very hospitably entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Faville, and after the singing was over, refreshments were served. The evening was very happily spent by all.
—O'Hara who was wounded by a bullet fired by Marshal Russell's revolver while trying to clear Wulff's saloon some time ago, and who was at that time arrested by the Marshal, has turned about and sworn out a warrant charging the Marshal with assault. The case has been continued until one week from Saturday.
—Heimstreet, the druggist, has been stirring the community considerably by scattering abroad several hundred pounds of letters addressed to residents in this vicinity setting forth the merits of Thermanine. If you haven't received the one directed to you, or if you have received somebody's else, he will make everything right by calling on him.
—The pay car of the Northwestern railroad company rolled into town yesterday, and the employees were paid in gold. Over $3,000 of shiny coin was thus scattered among the people. The employees grumbled about it, preferring greenbacks, to-day a great deal of the gold was brought back to exchange for greenbacks. Now that folks can have gold, they don't seem to want it, but when they couldn't get it, they were crazy for it.
—Miss C. Costersman has arrived in the city and taken up her residence at No. 18 Cherry street. She proposes to teach French to such as may desire to secure her services. Being a native of France, and thoroughly conversant with its language and literature, she is in all ways capable of giving the very best instruction. She has had an extended experience in teaching having been connected with several seminaries and schools of a high order in the East. She is withal a perfect lady, and comes here with the very best endorsements. Her terms are moderate, and those who desire to gain a knowledge of the French language should quickly improve this rare chance which now presents itself.
—The annual opening of McKee Bros' millinery department has created no little stir among those interested in the latest styles and novelties. The styles are so decidedly unique this season that more interest was taken in the samples shown than is usual, and that is saying much, for there is always a rush at every one of their openings. The display this time was unusually fine. There were about fifty bonnets, each one of which would merit special mention, and each of which had its own particular admirers. The styles are so markedly different from last year's as to attract much comment. There are different combinations of colors, there seems to be a passion for "dash," for feathers and birds, and bright ribbons, and yet there is a rich elegance about those put on exhibition, and a taste of arrangement that takes away any cause for calling them "loud." There were some modest, quaker-like styles too, in fact there was something which would just suit the taste of each one. Mrs. Amelien deserves much credit for the arrangement of the display, and it reflects great taste on the part of her and her assistants.
—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Field, and their son James, have returned from an extended trip to the East. They had a very pleasant journey, and saw much of interest. Leaving home in the latter part of July, they had a view of the St. Lawrence from Kingston to Montreal. They spent one week in the White Mountains, taking a team and driving around the Mountains and to the top of Mount Washington. They also visited Montpelier and Burlington, Vermont, Boston, Plymouth Rock, Newport, Rhode Island, Mount Auburn cemetery, Bunker Hill, and spent some time in New York city visiting the parks and the public buildings. They took a steamer up the Hudson to Albany, then visited Niagara Falls, and then homeward. From this outline it is evident they crowded the time with interesting sight-seeing and they enjoyed it greatly. Among the souvenirs which Mr. Field brought back with him is a copy of "Burt's Among the Clouds," a four page paper, printed on the very summit of Mount Washington. It is a paper of high standing. Among the items of interest we notice in it is the weather record, showing that on the date of issue, August 13, the thermometer stood from 40 to 54 degrees above.

SIGH UNTO DEATH.

Lin Kinney Found in the Gas-Vault of his Father's House Nearly Fatally Smothered by Escaping Gas.

This forenoon a strange accident occurred which came very near causing the death of Lin Kinney, son of J. H. Kinney. As is well known Mr. Kinney's house is lighted by gas which is manufactured on the premises from gasoline. This morning young Kinney went out to fill the reservoir, and look after the gas machine. He did not return to the house as soon as expected and some of the family going to the vault found him lying there insensible, and not even breathing. The gas had escaped in some manner and well nigh overcome him, and he bore every appearance of being dead. He was taken into the house as soon as possible and Dr. Palmer was summoned in haste. After a time breathing was restored and consciousness returned in part, but with a confusion of mind which would naturally be expected after such a sleep of death. He was soon able to talk a little, but the fearful power of the gas will leave its effects for some time, though there is every reason to believe that he will recover his accustomed health and vigor in time. It is not known how long he lay there and had he not been discovered just as he was death would soon have ensued. It was a most narrow escape, and the young man was so far gone that for a time it seemed that he could not be brought to life. The accident will prove startling news among his friends here, of whom he has so many, and while they will all be thankful that it did not result fatally, they will watch impatiently for him to fully recover from the effects of it.

CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED.

Last night there was a little group of men at Antoine Behrend's who had a few drinks, just before retiring for the night. One of the party, "Uncle John," in paying for some drinks showed his "roll" carelessly, and it is thought some one spied it, for when he woke up this morning he found that he had been robbed of it. The roll contained $32. His hat too was missing from his room. Another man who is known as "Frank," who was in the party last night, and who was supposed to have gone to bed when the others did, didn't put in an appearance this morning and it is thought that he has left which naturally throws suspicion on him. His hat was found in the hotel office, which adds still further suspicion that he is now wearing "Uncle John's" hat, and that he took the money at the same time. As the door of Uncle John's room was not locked it was no difficult matter for anyone to have stepped in and captured the wealth while he was asleep.

A MORNING FIRE

About 6 o'clock this morning the fire bells tapped an alarm, caused by fire breaking out in the house owned and occupied by Patrick Griffin, on Palm street. The engines went to the spot, but were unable to do any good, the building being at a distance from water. The house was a one and half story frame, and was burned to the ground. Some of the furniture was saved. The fire originated from the stove-pipe passing through a chimney. Mr. Griffin started a fire in the kitchen stove as usual early this morning, and it was not long after before the blaze burst out. The property was insured for $1,000 in the Continental Fire Insurance Company, of Chicago, and this will about cover the loss.

Mr. F. Wulke, Lafayette, Ind., reports a case where a man suffered so badly with Rheumatism that he could not move. His legs were swollen and he had the most terrible pains. Twelve hours after the first application of the St. Jacobs Oil the pains were gone and the swelling had disappeared.

CARROLL DISCHARGED.

The examination of Patrick Carroll was completed yesterday afternoon and the prisoner was discharged. The evidence showed that Carroll's father had been drinking and that young Carroll was trying to get him home, when old man McCarthy told him not to go till he got ready, and wanted another drink first. Young Carroll then gave McCarthy a push with one hand, and the old man fell, fracturing his hip. The physicians testified that there was an enlargement of the heart of years standing, but that death was caused by a heart clot which had formed of late, and that it might have been caused by the fall and shock to the system, but that this was only the theory of the matter, and but an opinion. Carroll was consequently discharged, the evidence not being conclusive enough to warrant his being held.

MORE MUSIC.

There was a pleasant evening's entertainment at Prof. Titcomb's rooms, last evening, which was enjoyed most heartily by about thirty of those who are interested in musical culture. A very pleasing programme was arranged, which opened by a piano duet by Miss Battle and Prof. Titcomb, it being "Divertissement Humourant," by Schubert. Miss Few was also present, and gave as a violin solo a minuet by Beethoven. Miss Battle gave a piano solo, "Valse Brillante, Op. 93," by Heller. Mrs. St. John sang "With Verdure Clad," from the Cretion. Prof. Titcomb played "Andante Favorite" from Mozart and Heller's "Summer Song," and the programme closed with an instrumental duet by Miss Battle and Prof. Titcomb, "Large Minuet and Presto," Symphony No. 5, from Haydn. The class of music handled, and the way in which it was handled, made it a rich treat indeed for those who love music.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY J. H. BENTON, DRUGGIST.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 50 degrees above; at 7 o'clock at 49 degrees above; at 8 o'clock at 48 degrees above; at 9 o'clock at 47 degrees above; at 10 o'clock at 46 degrees above. Cloudy and cold northerly winds.

One year ago to-day at 7 o'clock a. m. the thermometer stood at 33 degrees above and at 2 o'clock p. m., at 50 degrees above. The indications are for the upper lake region, slightly colder, clear or partly cloudy, with northwesterly winds, backing to southwesterly and higher barometer.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchange, by the careful use of moderate sums in well manipulated stock transactions, which returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market, the safest and most successful method for operating in a regular way is in Financial Union by the Protective System of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The vast aggregates on the face of shares that have recently advanced, and their proportions, have been chiefly promoted by the infusion of this new element, which has produced results surprising to all. The conservative basis of this system is its great safety. To be sure of gaining the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System excels. On October 1st three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 in Lake Shore stock by the Financial Union System, and on Thursday closed the operation with a net profit of $3,725.47 for each investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $150 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $12,083.75 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston united their capital and invested $425 on Michigan Central, and 10 days afterwards they acknowledged receipt of $1,320.55 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York invested $600 each in Financial Union on St. Paul stock, and on Thursday, the 14th of August, they closed the deal and divided $18,000 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington used $50 for two weeks in Protective on Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made a clean profit of $379.64. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania politician invested $1,200 in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Michigan Central stocks, and in five days drew out of the market with $1,561.21 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $250 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterward closed with a gain of $1,198.37. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks. Wise good advice has been followed. With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are more favorable, as the operators are equally as good for carrying the profits from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $5 to $25,000 or more can be invested with profitable success by the Financial Union System on regular sales, that leave the capital of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what stock they own, so that they can cause a glance what their profits are at any hour of the day by referring to market quotations. All operators are assured of straightforward treatment by the Financial Union System. Orders filled and information furnished free. Write for terms and territory. MISCELLANEOUS.

FURNITURE! Still Down at Bottom Prices

Notwithstanding the recent advance in all kinds of Furniture, we are determined to keep prices as heretofore. Having kept posted as to the doings of the recent Convention of Furniture Manufacturers, we took advantage of the market and purchased 100 dozen Chairs, about four car loads, at the old prices, with unusual discounts. That's good news for persons wishing to purchase such goods. All goods at lowest prices. Parlor and Chamber Furniture the largest stock that was ever brought to this city. Our trade has never been better than last month. For five years past things have been booming with us. No use going to Chicago for Chamber Sets; we can beat them; we had it lately illustrated here to-day. No cheap goods here, but good goods cheap. No green lumber. If things are not as we tell you, we are here and you can see us; we are going to stay. Call and look over our stock.

UNDERTAKING.

Any work in the undertaking line we will do at very reasonable rates. Every facility for preserving the dead. Fourteen years experience. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Charlie Payne's (The Harness Maker's) COMMANDMENTS!

1st. When ready, thou shalt come to me and trade.
2d. Thou shalt always keep my name in memory, and forget all others in the same business.
3d. Thou shalt honor me and my men with thy trade, so that thou mayest long live in the land and continue to trade with me.
4th. Thou shalt not buy of my men who advertise to sell for me, but thou shalt buy of me, or of other sharers, else thou gett'st me into bad money and leather, and pay double thy value.
5th. Thou shalt not raise thy voice against my prices, as my goods are marked at Rock Bottom.
6th. Thou shalt not dare to pay for goods in bad money, nor say "Chalk it on the clerk."
7th. Thou shalt not steal from me, as I want all I have got, and more too.
8th. Thou shalt get good bargains, as I am content to live on small profits.
9th. Thou shalt not ask me to run book accounts, but say for thy goods in cash or notes, and buy no more than thou canst pay for when thou agreeest to.
10th. Thou shalt buy C. H. Payne's Harness, coarse and fine, his Trunks and Satchels, Whips, &c., and shall always go to his shop to get your repairing done in preference to all others. Thou shalt always get thy money's worth, that thou mayest prosper, and that when in want of any thing in my line, I may see thee again. 41w6m
